

Figure 10.1: Example of a binary tree. The node depths range from 0 to 5. Node M has the highest depth (5) of any node in the tree, implying the height of the tree is 5.